

SANTA ROSA
JUNIOR COLLEGE

Off the Vine 2017

The Wine Country Field Care Symposium
for EMS Professionals

Monday June 12, 2017 8am - 5:30pm

Carole L. Ellis Auditorium, Santa Rosa Junior College, Petaluma California

Cost: $50 (includes lunch!)

CE: Approved for 8 hours of instructor based EMS CE by CA EMS Provider 49-0004 and BRN 12522

Register Online: <http://tinyurl.com/p2lbb3l>

Topics

- Future Shock: The state of EMS System design, today and tomorrow
- STEMI and the 12 Lead - Tips, tricks and teasers
- California Community Paramedicine Project: Where we are right now
- First response to strangulation injuries
- Management of Endurance Athletes
- Recognizing and managing the autistic patient
- Submersion injuries
- Blood thinners and trauma patient management
- Snap Decisions: Who you are influences what you do

Speakers include

- John Sinclair, President International Association of Fire Chiefs
- Lou Meyers, California EMSA Community Paramedicine Project Manager
- Matt Karp, MD, Sutter Sonoma Medical Center Department of Emergency Medicine
- Cheryl McBride, MD, Kaiser Permanente Department of Emergency Medicine
- Mark LaGrave, MD, Chief Kaiser Permanente Medical Center Department of Emergency Medicine
- Delya Stoltz, Paramedic, Stanislaus Strangulation Task Force
- Beth Wyatt, Sonoma County Parks
- Robert Dice, RN, Trauma Services Nurse Manager Santa Rosa Memorial Hospital
- Matt Gutierrez, Paramedic, California Highway Patrol
- Scott Snyder Paramedic Faculty Santa Rosa Junior College Emergency Medical Care

Sponsors

Exhibitors

