COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed to assist public safety personnel only in identifying individuals who are under the influence of drugs. Public safety personnel will develop skills and confidence in evaluating individuals suspected of being under the influence of stimulants, opiates, hallucinogens, and marijuana. The course will also give the officer a basic knowledge of other drug related matters as indicated below.

Topics Include:

- Drug Influence Recognition
- Signs and Symptoms of Drug Use
- Informant Development Tips
- History of Drug Abuse
- Report Writing Techniques
- New Drug Trends
- 4th and 5th Amendment Issues
- Officer Safety Issues
- Drug Packaging
- Developing Expert Testimony

Non-Discrimination Statement: The Sonoma County Junior College District does not discriminate on the basis of race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, ethnic group identification, physical disability, mental disability, medical condition, genetic condition, marital status, sex, gender identity, gender expression, genetic information or sexual orientation in any of its policies, procedures or practices; nor does the District discriminate against any employees or applicants for employment on the basis of their age. This non-discrimination policy covers admission, access and treatment in District programs and activities – including but not limited to academic admissions, financial aid, education services and athletics – and application for District employment
