Course Description:

This 120-hour course complies with current California Commission on Peace Officers Standards and Training (POST) requirements and is designed to provide entry level training for public safety dispatchers. Students receive instruction in California law enforcement communications and learn basic dispatching skills. Program segments include professional orientation and ethics, telephone techniques, radio procedures, missing persons, domestic violence, gang awareness, child/elder abuse, cultural diversity, stress management, critical incidents, and practical application.

Non-Discrimination Statement: The Sonoma County Junior College District does not discriminate on the basis of race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, ethnic group identification, physical disability, mental disability, medical condition, genetic condition, marital status, sex, gender identity, gender expression, genetic information or sexual orientation in any of its policies, procedures or practices; nor does the District discriminate against any employees or applicants for employment on the basis of their age. This non-discrimination policy covers admission, access and treatment in District programs and activities – including but not limited to academic admissions, financial aid, education services and athletics – and application for District employment
